

Hong Kong Jockey Club
Disaster Preparedness and Response Institute visited the Geotechnical Engineering Office 23 October 2017

Representatives from Hong Kong Jockey Club Disaster Preparedness and Response Institute visited the Geotechnical Engineering Office (GEO) on 23 October 2017. The GEO briefed the delegation on the Hong Kong Slope Safety System and associated public education works, Landslip Warning and emergency services and risk management on natural terrain hazards. There were discussion on the subjects related to disaster preparedness and public education works. The delegation appreciated with the interaction and experience sharing.